All reading assignments are to be completed on time, and you should come to class prepared to discuss each one.

Your stories are to be typed and double-spaced.

Three absences are the limit; four will lower the given student's grade one letter; and five absences will result in a failing grade.

Each student will be required to turn in two (2) short stories, both of which will be revised as much as is necessary for the full development of form, plot, character(s), scenes, etc. (The essentials of the genre will be discussed in class.) Grades will be determined according to the extent to which such development has been realized and reflected in each story by each student, the final version of each story--together with previous drafts--to be handed in during finals' week, date and time to be announced.
